

St. John Newsletter

November 2017

John Hough

The times they are a changing

The Village Newsletter has been in circulation for about 28 years. It was earlier compiled and produced by villager Jean Brown then of Gooseford Cottage until she moved away to the Poole area. Over the past fifteen years this task has been undertaken by John Hough. John has been an enthusiastic member of the Village Hall committee for all that time. In 2002 he took on the task of gleaning village news and compiling events etc. and incorporating it into the Newsletter, which he then edited prior to publication, either online or via hand distribution. Village news is often hard to come by or close to non-existent, so John compiled it with a selection of photos, quips and mind teasers but always on time at the start of each month.

We are all indebted to John for his interest and perseverance and his ability to ensure the Newsletter was awaited with due anticipation. However, John has now had to give up this onerous task due to advancing years and ill health. As a Village we pass on our heartfelt thanks to John and wish him all the best for the future.

Editorial

Hello. I'm David Greenhalgh and from 1st November 2017 I will be taking over from John Hough and trying to keep all of you up to date with what is happening in and around the village of St. John.

Welcome to my first Newsletter.

In keeping with the pace of constant technological change the Newsletter will be digital from now on i.e. no hard copies, except for one copy on the hall noticeboard and one copy in the St. John Inn. The style and content of the newsletter will change so as to keep villagers informed but also to encourage everyone to engage with issues that concern and affect them. Therefore, I offer you an opportunity to get involved by making your thoughts, ideas, concerns, questions and suggestions known through the 'letters to the editor' section. Just email me and I will ensure that they are published in the following month's newsletter along with answers where appropriate. I hope you'll still send me any items of interest and advertisements can, of course, also be emailed to me.

Contact: dwgreenhalgh@gmail.com

In future I hope to include a general precis of what is discussed in both Village Hall and Parish Council committee meetings, so that you are more aware of what issues they may currently be dealing with on your behalf.

Lastly, I have arranged to archive the Newsletters on the village website so that they will be a resource of historical information. To access them go to <http://stjohnincornwall.org.uk/village-newsletter/>

I look forward to hearing from you.

For your Diary

Next outing will be on Nov 14th courtesy of Val and Paul.

If you would like to be included on the mailing list do let Sue Richards have your E Mail address.

A sprightly team of 15 plus five dogs set off at a military pace, making an impressive sight in the dappled autumn sunshine. June pretended to make slower progress and then sprinted to catch up when everyone's back was turned.

After Penlee Point our forces were disposed to form a pincer movement on the pub. Some took the right ground by the battery, others went for the centre via the fields, and the rump soldered on to take the left flank by way of the coastguard station.

Our speed and agility took the boozier by surprise and they seemed unaware of our presence for a little while. However all was well in the end, everyone was fed and watered. A grand walk, no rain and not too much mud.
